

Using Before and After in Sentences

Cut the cards on the darker lines so each card has a top and a bottom. Students read the top portion of the card and then decide if before or after goes into the blue frame. Be careful, because many of the before sentence cards have a corresponding card that requires after. Students will have to think it through and not just remember the pictures.

Brush your teeth 	Put on your socks 	Plant the seeds
  you eat.	  your shoes.	  you dig a hole in the ground.
Cut the paper 	Cross the street 	Look for traffic
  you measure it.	 you look for traffic. 	  you cross the street.

Using Before and After in Sentences

Cut the cards on the darker lines so each card has a top and a bottom. Students read the top portion of the card and then decide if before or after goes into the blue frame. Be careful, because many of the before sentence cards have a corresponding card that requires after. Students will have to think it through and not just remember the pictures.

Pour a glass of water 	Unlock the door 	Get a book off the shelf
  you drink it.	  you open it.	  you check it out from the library.
Check a book out from the library 	Open the door 	Drink a glass of water
  you get it off the shelf.	  you unlock it.	  you pour it.

Using Before and After in Sentences

Cut the cards on the darker lines so each card has a top and a bottom. Students read the top portion of the card and then decide if before or after goes into the blue frame. Be careful, because many of the before sentence cards have a corresponding card that requires after. Students will have to think it through and not just remember the pictures.

Put flowers in the vase 	Cut the flowers 	Thread the needle
  you cut them.	  you put them in the vase.	  you sew the button.
Sew the button 	Squeeze the tube to get lotion 	Wash your hands
  you thread the needle.	  you rub it on your skin.	  you dry your hands with the towel.